POINT FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES RECEIPT OF MAJOR AWARD FROM THE MOTOROLA FOUNDATION

CHICAGO, April 29 2008 Point Foundation (Point), the nation's largest scholarship-granting organization for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) students of merit, today announced that the Motorola Foundation will support Point's upcoming annual 2008 Leadership & Alumni Conference which is designed to provide extensive leadership training to gifted LGBT students.

"We are honored to partner with Motorola and its foundation," said Jorge Valencia, Executive Director & CEO of Point Foundation. "Motorola clearly understands that investing in Point yields the immediate benefit associated with transforming a life and the long-term benefit of helping to produce society's future leaders. Together we are committed to ensuring excellence in the training and education of tomorrow's leaders."

Students who are awarded the organization's prestigious scholarships, known as Point Scholars, are selected through a rigorous and highly competitive process that requires a record of demonstrated academic excellence, leadership skills, community involvement and financial need. This year's Leadership and Alumni Conference will be held in Chicago and will bring together over 150 of the brightest minds from the LGBT community.

About Motorola Foundation
